Songs of Praise

“Your Grace Is Enough”

Chris Tomlin

Great is your faithfulness, oh God. You wrestle with the sinner’s heart,
You lead us by still waters into mercy, and nothing can keep us apart.

So remember Your people, remember Your children,
Remember Your promise, Oh, God.

Your grace is enough, Your grace is enough,
Your grace is enough for me.

Great is Your love and justice God,
You use the weak to lead the strong.
You lead us in the song of Your salvation
and all Your people sing along.

Your grace is enough, Heav’n reaching down to us.
Your grace is enough for me, Your grace is enough,
I’m covered in Your love, Your grace is enough for me.

“Blessed Be Your Name”

Matt & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name in the land that is plentiful,
Where Your streams of abundance flow, blessed be Your name.
Blessed be Your name when I’m found in the desert place,
Though I walk through the wilderness, blessed be Your name.

Every blessing You pour out I’ll turn back to praise.
When the darkness closes in, Lord, still I will say,

Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your name.
Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your glorious name.

Blessed be Your name when the sun’s shining down on me,
When the world’s all as it should be, blessed be Your name.
Blessed be Your name on the road marked with suffering,
Though there’s pain in the offering, blessed be Your name.

You give and take away, You give and take away.
My heart will choose to say, "Lord, blessed be Your name."

Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your name.
Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your glorious name.

Offering "Here I am to Worship"

Tim Hughes

Light of the world, You stepped down into darkness,
Opened my eyes, let me see beauty that made
This heart adore You, hope of a life spent with You.

So here I am to worship. Here I am to bow down.
Here I am to say that You're my God;
You're altogether lovely, altogether worthy,
Altogether wonderful to me.

King of all days, oh so highly exalted.
Glorious in heaven above.
Humbly You came to the earth You created,
All for love's sake became poor.

And I'll never know how much it cost
To see my sin upon that cross.
And I'll never know how much it cost
To see my sin upon that cross.

“How Great Is Our God”

Tomlin/Reeves/Cash

The splendor of a king, clothed in majesty,
Let all the earth rejoice, all the earth rejoice.
He wraps Himself in light and darkness tries to hide
And trembles at His voice, trembles at His voice.

How great is our God, how great is our God.
And all will see how great, how great is our God.

Age to age He stands and time is in His hands.
Beginning and the end. Beginning and the end.
The Godhead, Three in One,
Father, Spirit, Son, the Lion and the Lamb,
Lion and the Lamb.

Name above all names, Worthy of all praise,
My heart will sing how great is our God.

Scripture Exodus 3:1-15 Moses and the Burning Bush

Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. So Moses thought, "I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up."

When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, "Moses! Moses!" And Moses said, "Here I am."

"Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." Then he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob." At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

The LORD said, "I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering. So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them. So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt."

But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

And God said, "I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain."

Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what shall I tell them?"

God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

God also said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.'

"This is my name forever, the name you shall call me from generation to generation."

Good morning and welcome to worship!

It is an honor and a privilege to present God's word to you this morning. This week we will be looking at "Moses and the Burning Bush." In this scripture God calls Moses to take on what seems to be an impossible task: asking Pharaoh to free his people. The reaction of Moses to this of course is that he clearly is not capable of doing it.

As I pondered this scripture, it jumped out at me that Moses was right, he was not capable of taking on this task. How do you react when God calls you to something that you know is beyond your current capabilities and totally out of your comfort zone? Do you ignore the call and just hope it goes away; or do you take that step of faith and trust the Lord will be alongside you and provide in the areas where you are not capable?

Are we missing out on incredible opportunities to be a blessing to others?

Next Sunday

We are called to be people who "live to a promise." When Jesus left this earth, He gave us work to do until He returned. We still have that work and still await His return.

The new Fall season is almost here. Opportunities are everywhere. You have choices to make. Will you volunteer, join a group, lead a group, try a new direction?? Jesus never gave us permission to just wait for him to return.

The message for next week instructs us to "wake up" and get moving. Are you with me?
